

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR NOMINATION FORM

The purpose of the Corporate Social Responsibility Executive of the Year award is to recognize and celebrate a corporate employee who exemplifies extraordinary leadership in the advancement of its company's corporate citizenship and the nonprofit community as a whole. This award will be presented to a corporate social responsibility executive who has demonstrated keen understanding of and sensitivity to the nonprofit community and its issues; delivers and invests in high impact projects with long-term effect; and raises the visibility and awareness of critical issues important to improving the quality of life for North Texas citizens. Potential nominees can include individuals who work in community relations, corporate foundations, social responsibility, public affairs and marketing departments at a for-profit corporation. The Center for Nonprofit Management will honor this leader by awarding $5,000 to the nonprofit organization of his/her choice. To nominate an individual, please complete the following:
