CENTER CELEBRATES 5TH ANNIVERSARY OF NONPROFIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS FALL SEMESTERS BEGIN

Dallas – The Center for Nonprofit Management is pleased to announce the fifth anniversary of the Nonprofit Management Certificate Program presented in partnership with Brookhaven College and the Nonprofit Leadership Certificate Program presented in partnership with SMU.

The Nonprofit Management Certificate program consists of 7 full-day sessions and explores the basic principles and best practices of the nonprofit sector. The program is designed for both professionals already engaged in the nonprofit field who seek a valuable professional credential, as well as for those who are considering transitioning to a new career in the public sector.

The Nonprofit Leadership Certificate program consists of 14 half-day sessions and is designed for nonprofit CEOs/Executive Directors and select senior/executive staff who wish to develop their leadership within the context of the sector. The program places much emphasis on the best of current theories and practices in leadership.

“As we enter our fifth year, the two certificate programs offered by the Center in collaboration with our academic partners continue to directly address the professional development needs of current and future nonprofit leaders,” said Cynthia B. Nunn, president, Center for Nonprofit Management. “If you are ready to invest in improving your skills and are serious about learning effective nonprofit management best practices, we encourage you to consider enrolling in one or both of these programs.”

Nonprofit executives interested in learning more about the Nonprofit Leadership Certificate Program are invited to attend at a free information session on Thursday, August 21, from 6 to 7 p.m. in the seminar room of SMU’s Meadows Museum at 5900 Bishop Blvd. in Dallas. The first session of the Nonprofit Management Certificate will be held on Friday, September 5, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Center for Nonprofit Management at 2902 Floyd Street, in Dallas. To register for either of these programs or for more information, visit www.cnmdallas.org or call 214-826-3470.
